Read Chapter 8: Lies about relationships (pages 103–115)

Lie 13: It's okay to be one person at home and a different person with others... especially online. (Matthew 23:26b–28)

1. What is a hypocrite? Give an example from your own life—a time you have been "hypocritical."

2. Choose one of the "Five Ways to Cultivate Authentic Faith" (p. 105) and do it—be ready to share what you did. (If you don't text, then send an email, call, or write a note!)

Lie 14: If I just had friends, I wouldn't be so lonely. (Proverbs 17:17)

3. Would God call you his "friend?" Why or why not?

4. Page 110 instructs you to look around for someone who needs your friendship. What does this mean? Can you name someone who needs your friendship?

5. Describe a "biblical" friend. (See Pr 18:24, Pr 17:17, Pr 27:6)
